

Kasih Sends Food Aid Shipment to Lebanon to Support Relief Efforts

In a gesture of solidarity with the brotherly lebanese people, kasih food co. A leader in middle eastern food manufacturing, has announced the shipment of food aid to lebanon.

This initiative aligns with kasih's firm commitment to social responsibility and its ongoing support for communities in the region. The shipment contains high-quality food products produced using the latest technologies to ensure the preservation of nutritional value for as long as possible, thereby helping to provide food relief to families in need.

Mr. Khalid kasih, the general manager of kasih food co. Stated, "we recognize our duty towards our brothers and sisters in lebanon during these challenging times. We hope that this aid will alleviate their suffering and meet their basic needs. We reaffirm our steadfast commitment to supporting arab communities and fostering values of cooperation and solidarity at all times, whether through our local programs or across borders."

It is worth noting that kasih food co. Continues to strengthen its efforts to meet the essential needs of communities facing crises, inspired by its noble mission to provide healthy and sustainable food products for all.
