

Kasih Food Production Co Included in the Golden List by Jordan Customs

Kasih food production company has been added to the golden list for import, reflecting its strong commitment to quality and compliance with customs regulations. This recognition from the Jordan Customs department follows the completion of a field audit by the compliance audit committee, which evaluated the company's adherence to security requirements and import procedures.

As a leading food manufacturing company, Kasih has proven its ability to meet the highest standards, earning this prestigious certification. The company's management emphasizes that this achievement is the result of hard work and transparency in all its operations, demonstrating its commitment to delivering high-quality products.

During the certificate award ceremony, officials noted that the golden list program offers facilities and incentives that encourage compliant companies to benefit from. It is one of the pioneering programs that adopts modern customs practices aligned with global standards.

Kasih food production co. is continually striving to improve its performance and enhance its competitiveness in both local and international markets. This accomplishment reflects the company's ongoing efforts to develop its production and distribution processes, contributing to strengthened trust between the company and its customers.

In conclusion, Kasih's inclusion in the golden list highlights the Jordan Customs department's commitment to promoting transparency and compliance, reflecting the vision of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan to achieve economic and investment progress. It also underscores the importance of strong local companies like Kasih in supporting the national economy.