

🧡 Kasih Food Production Co Earns Two International Certifications in Food Safety and Risk Management

Kasih Food Production Co. is proud to announce that we have been awarded two prestigious certifications from Bureau Veritas Jordan, a globally recognized certification body:

- FSSC 22000 Version 6 – for Food Safety
- ISO 31000 – for Risk Management

These certifications reflect our ongoing commitment to maintaining the highest international standards across our operations. The FSSC 22000 certification confirms the strength and reliability of our food safety management systems, while the ISO 31000 .

certification highlights our strategic approach to identifying, assessing, and managing risks across all business functions, Achieving these certifications is a significant milestone in our continuous improvement journey, and it reinforces our dedication to delivering safe, high-quality products while ensuring long-term resilience and sustainability.

We thank our quality, safety, and operations teams for their hard work and dedication, and we look forward to building on this success as we grow and evolve in line with global best practices.
