

♥ Kasih Food Production Co Earns AA Grade in BRCGS Food Safety Certification for the Third Consecutive Year

We are proud to share that Kasih Food Production Co. has once again achieved the AA grade in the BRCGS Global Standard for Food Safety certification marking our third consecutive year of receiving this top-tier recognition.

This consistent achievement reflects our strong and ongoing commitment to excellence, innovation, and continuous improvement in all areas of our operations. The BRCGS certification is one of the most rigorous and globally recognized food safety standards and maintaining the AA grade is a clear testament to the strength of our systems, the dedication of our team, and our focus on delivering products that meet the highest international standards.

At Kasih, we believe that every improvement, no matter how small, brings us one step closer to our greater vision. We remain committed to pushing boundaries, raising the bar, and staying ahead in a rapidly evolving industry.

We thank our quality, safety, and production teams whose efforts make these milestones possible year after year.
